1. Preamble

The Quality Council for Trades and Occupations (QCTO) is established in terms of the Skills Development Act, Act No. 97 of 1998 as amended. In terms of section 26H(3) of this Act the QCTO is responsible for the development, maintenance and quality assurance of occupational qualifications within its sub-framework.

The QCTO uses Development Quality Partners (DQPs) to manage and fund the development of occupational qualifications where the QCTO is an active participant in the process monitoring, overseeing and ensuring that there are appropriate reports.

Each DQP on recommendation of the Community of Expert Practitioners must recommend to the QCTO an Assessment Quality Partner (AQP) that will develop qualification assessment specifications during the qualification development process and manage external summative assessments thereafter in addition to performing an array of administrative functions as described in section 6 below. The QCTO qualification development model requires that the AQPs should sign Service Level Agreements (SLAs) with the QCTO during the qualification development process.

The QCTO wants to establish a streamlined, cost-efficient and effective skills development system that responds to labour market skills needs. It will focus quality assurance on the final integrated summative assessment specified in the curriculum. This will determine whether learners have developed the required occupational competence to be awarded the qualification. Therefore, the QCTO will concentrate its resources on the quality assurance of the design and assessment of occupational qualifications, research and data analysis to pinpoint emerging problems. In short, an AQP is an entity appointed by the QCTO and delegated to manage, on behalf of the QCTO, the assessment process in order to achieve the above objective.

2. Purpose

This criteria and guidelines document is part of a series of QCTO policies and guidelines for managing provisioning of QCTO occupational qualifications and assessment thereof. The purpose of this document is to define the legal framework underpinning the establishment of Assessment Quality Partners (AQPs); their responsibilities and obligations; criteria for becoming an AQP and how the QCTO will manage the partnership with the AQPs. It also provides information on technical and administration competency requirements whilst considering certain principles and QCTO values.

3. Audience and applicability

The criteria and guidelines advises people and organisations on how to sign a Service Level Agreement (SLA) with the QCTO in order to perform the AQP delegated functions. It focuses on these issues as it assumes that these will be the main concerns of bodies and organisations aspiring to become AQPs. This document also serves as a guideline to Assessment Quality Partners (AQPs) and interested entities about the application process.

4. Underlying principles and values

The following principles and values have been taken into consideration during the development of this criteria and guidelines for becoming an AQP:

External Assessment systems and processes must:

- 4.1 be fair, reliable, valid, ethical and transparent
- 4.2 be consistent across time, place, role players and respond to a non-sectoral demand led model
- 4.3 use methodologies that are fit-for-purpose and reflect a consistent level of higher cognitive challenge
- 4.4 avoid tendencies of exclusivity
- 4.5 adhere to the QCTO values which are:
 - i. innovation and excellence
 - ii. empowerment and recognition
 - iii. respect and dignity
 - iv. ethics and integrity
 - v. ownership and accountability
 - vi. authenticity

5. What are Qualification Assessment Specifications (QASs):

The AQP will set the national standards to ensure validity and consistency of the external summative assessment. The QASs form an integral part of every occupational qualification and are developed for each occupational qualification and outline and record the following information:

- i. Title of occupational qualification
- ii. Curriculum reference number
- iii. Name and details of the AQP
- iv. External assessment strategy
- v. Key occupational outcomes
- vi. The point(s) at which the qualification must be assessed (allowing for production cycle if required)
- vii. Critical identified elements of 'internal assessment' to be externally moderated (if any)
- viii. Eligibility requirements for candidates for external assessment
- ix. Exemptions
- x. Minimum requirements for the registration of assessors
- xi. and provide links to the AQP website for information on:
- xii. Criteria for accreditation of assessment centres
- xiii. Exemplars of external assessment instruments
- xiv. Relevant sections of AQP assessment policy and procedures: those required for public information, including:
- xv. language(s) of assessment and RPL;

The Qualification Assessment Specifications are developed during the qualification development process and it is expected that a minimum of 50% of the working group members should be experts in that particular occupational qualification.

6. The functions of an Assessment Quality Partner (AQP)

- 6.1 An Assessment Quality Partner must, in respect of the qualifications and part qualifications specified in the Service Level Agreement;
 - 6.1.1 recommend the external assessment specifications document for approval by the QCTO;
 - 6.1.2 develop and maintain a national data-bank of instruments for external assessments;
 - 6.1.3 publish exemplars of external assessments;
 - 6.1.4 recommend to the QCTO the accreditation and withdrawal of accreditation of skills development providers for the knowledge and/or practical skills component using criteria and guidelines provided by the QCTO;
 - 6.1.5 register assessors and moderators for the external assessments;
 - 6.1.6 develop criteria for the accreditation of assessment centres or the approval of assessment sites for external assessments;
 - 6.1.7 recommend to the QCTO the accreditation and withdrawal of accreditation of assessment centres; and

- 6.9 Report to the QCTO on the performance of its functions in the form and manner required by the QCTO; and
- 6.10 Provide a mechanism for RPL

7. Which bodies could become national Assessment Quality Partners?

The need to establish an AQP arises from the development of an occupational qualification. A body that has the necessary credibility in the relevant constituency (industry/sector/profession) must be identified to manage External Integrated Summative Assessment by conducting the AQP functions listed above. Depending on their current functions and areas of expertise any of the following existing bodies might be appointed as Assessment Quality Partners for specific occupations or groups of occupations:

- i. Moderating Bodies
- ii. Examining Bodies
- iii. Professional Bodies
- iv. Legislated Boards
- v. Occupational Associations

Note: If none of these exists with a specific interest in the relevant occupation, a SETA or industry body may also fulfil this role, but not a provider.

8. Criteria for the approval of an Assessment Quality Partner

8.1 The QCTO will appoint an entity as an assessment quality partner only if satisfied that the entity has:

- i. The necessary expertise, experience and standing in relation to the occupational qualifications or foundational learning for which the assessment quality partner is appointed; and
- ii. the resources necessary to perform its functions

8.2 In terms of clause 6.1 of the QCTO Delegation Policy, 22 June 2011 the criteria have been defined in detail as follows:

- vi. have the financial resources necessary to establish the AQP function and implement effective, efficient and transparent financial management and internal control systems, verified by means of a written commitment by its relevant authority; Possible evidence: evidence that the functions have been catered for in the organisation budget; a letter from the AQP's relevant authority committing the necessary financial resources to fund the AQP;

- vii. have a proposed fee structure funding model to maintain the delivery of AQP services for a minimum of five years aligned to the QCTO Fee Structure Policy;

12 Quality assurance and monitoring the implementation of AQP functions

- 12.1 On appointment the Assessment Quality Partner signs a Service Level Agreement with the QCTO. This provides a schedule for implementation of the QCTO model for external assessment, giving deadlines for each requirement during the first year of appointment. This schedule provides the basis for the QCTO to monitor, evaluate and review the initial activities of the AQP.
- 12.2 In addition, the QCTO has a standardised data reporting template which must be completed and submitted annually. This provides specified quantitative data to the QCTO.
- 12.1 The following information will be submitted quarterly to meet the QCTO internal auditor's requirements: Number of skills development providers and assessment centres accredited; number of learners that sat for external integrated summative assessment; number of learner certificates recommended to the QCTO.
- 12.2 Each year after the first year of appointment the AQP must also complete and submit a qualitative report, which serves the dual purpose of a self evaluation, assisting in strategic planning for the coming year, and of providing the QCTO with the basis for continued monitoring, evaluation and review.
- 12.3 During the fourth year an in-depth quality audit will be conducted in preparation for the decision whether or not to extend the appointment of the AQP after the five year term has been completed.
